Welcome Address

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

a cordial welcome to all of you who come to Basel, our beautiful Swiss city located at the border to France and Germany, to participate in the 2nd International Congress of EFCAP, the European Association for Forensic Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, Psychology and other involved Professions.

Two years after the wonderful 1st EFCAP Congress that was organized by Theo Doreleijers in Amsterdam we again have the chance to come together to discuss new scientific research and to exchange ideas about many topics around the origins and the assessment, treatment and prevention of antisocial and delinquent behaviour in children and adolescents with mental problems.

Invited are all professionals at the interface of medical, judicial and educational systems that get involved with children and adolescents with legal and mental problems. In seven Keynote-Lectures and more than 160 oral presentations, posters and workshops you get the chance to learn more about the ongoing development of the fascinating field of forensic adolescent psychiatry and its psychotherapeutic and educational approaches.

The official congress language is English, but as a tribute to the trilingual background of Switzerland there will be some symposia in German, French and Italian that may also attract participants from other countries. A congress cinema will give you the opportunity to find a “visual” access to the profound understanding of those behaviours in youth that are often so disturbing to all of us and to society in general. Another congress highlight will be the exhibition of the Austrian child psychiatrist and artist Dr. Anna Skrabal who presents her outstanding bronze sculptures that are fascinating and touching in the visualisation of mental problems and behavioural disorders.

As you all know coming together is one of the most important aspects of a scientific meeting. I hope that you will find the opportunity to meet old friends and to make the acquaintance of new colleagues. So do not miss the Welcome Reception on Tuesday evening and the Congress Dinner Party on Thursday night.

Enjoy the congress!

Klaus Schmeck
Congress President EFCAP 2010

R. Rossi, P. Ostermayer (Niederdorf, CH)
- The Arxhof, a correctional and rehabilitation centre for young adults, is a social psycho-therapeutical institution that runs under the correctional services act as part of the Swiss penal code. The institution focuses on criminal, violent and drug abusing young men between the ages of 17 – 25, whose ongoing developments and thus personal future lives are at risk. Specifically, the Arxhof offers a therapeutical environment, which is based on the principle of self-help and self-efficacy. The core areas of our resocialisation programme imply special needs education, psychotherapy, as well as the opportunity to conduct a state recognised apprenticeship. The aim-oriented psychotherapeutic and pedagogical concepts provide an intensive treatment, in which emphasis is placed on the analysis of the offence and offence prevention. The Arxhof accomodates 46 offenders and has approximately 80 specialized employees.

Discussion

• Gerade schwierige Jugendliche sind meist froh um die Vermittlung von Grenzen und vernünftigen Regeln.

• Gewalt, aggressives Verhalten, Sachbeschädigung, Alkohol, Drogen: Oft genug wachsen Pädagoginnen und Pädagogen, Betreuerinnen und Betreuer anhaltende Regelverstösse über den Kopf, sei es in Heimen, an Schulen oder in Jugendtreffpunkten.

• Endlose Diskussionen über Verhaltensregeln im Team und mit den Jugendlichen führen dabei oft zu nichts – ausser zu Frustration und Erschöpfung.

• In solchen Fällen kann der Ansatz der Konfrontativen Pädagogik neue Perspektiven aufzeigen.

The film FAUSTRECHT (Rule of the Fists) is a long-term documentary of two violent teenagers. Tim is an introverted teen who is subject to uncontrolled fists of violence. The film shows his 'odyssey' through institutions and foster homes, «looking for a quiet little spot» (quote Tim). Gibran is an extroverted charmer who uses violence to get what he wants. «I will hit anybody looking to be hit - no matter if man or woman» (quote Gibran). He spends time in a detention centre where he is strongly confronted with his violent behaviour.

The film casts a glance behind the statistics of violence, looking at young offenders that are victims of their own. (Quelle Text: http://www.faustrecht.ch/2_film.html)

I, Psychopath (83 min.)

Room: Nairobi

We never expect them to enter our real life. But experts believe their number to be as high as one in a hundred. Most of them function incognito in high-powered professions...all the way to the very top.

But... it takes one to truly know one. In this intriguing documentary, Sam Vaknin, a self-proclaimed psychopath, goes in search of a diagnosis. In a scientific first, he allows himself to undergo testing to find out if he was born without a conscience. ... but he believes, he's not a bad person. What he is is indifferent...he couldn't care less. Unless, of course, the topic is himself.

Vaknin and his long-suffering but ever-loyal wife, Lidija, embark on a diagnostic road trip. But, it's uncharted territory... deep into the mind and life of a psychopath. These experts put Vaknin (and his wife) through a battery of rigorous psychological tests and neuro-scientific experiments. (Quelle Text: <http://documentaryheaven.com/i-psychopath/>)

sculptures – modern times

I am curious. I am very curious.

In the center of my interest is the human being.

It is not enough for me just to look on the outside. No. I want to go inside. I want to see, hear, understand, feel what people think, love, hate, perceive. To know about what they get influenced by; get moved by. I want to understand their world....

So, my sculptures are not supposed to be just a mirror of what I see. They are the expression of my experiences, thoughts, ideas and observations and a distortion of reality because of an emotional effect. With my sculptures I want people to get affected. I want that something inside of them resounds and let their imaginative forces create their own vision.

So in the end my art is some kind of cycle. I collect all sorts of information about me and the people around me, digest it all and give it back in my sculptures.

The sculptures reflect in a fascinating way the soul of human beings – joy, grief, love, intimacy – all the facets of life: human beings interest me in their entirety, their spirits, their souls, their bodies. This was also the reason why I decided to study medicine. However, there is one difference between my life as a psychiatrist and an artist: In my profession I talk very much. As an artist I move away from the words and express my emotions in other ways."

City of Basel

City of Basel

Basel, a city full of surprises, is at the centre of north-western Switzerland. It is located in the so-called Dreiländereck, the triangle formed by the three countries of Switzerland, Germany and France. The city canton with around 190,000 inhabitants and a 2000-year history offers a unique range of culture and art, and possesses one of Europe's most attractive and best preserved Old Towns. Despite its social dynamism and innovative economic strength, Basel is a lively border town, with a strong traditional base rooted in history. Both its historical townscape and modern architecture are part of Basel's living present. Also the beautiful nearby regions can be reached in quite no time: the Jura, the french Vosges and the german Black Forest are all conveniently close by.

Climate

Its position in the Rhine valley gives Basel an exceptionally mild climate, which is influenced by Mediterranean air currents that flow up from the Rhone valley through the Belfort Gap. As a result, compared with the Swiss midlands, Basel enjoys an above-average amount of sunshine and only a few foggy days in fall.

In September it tends to be warm and humid at times with periodic rainfall; rainfall is spread across the whole year, with an average of around 90 mm per month.
